

When the fourth panel is complete, the book is sealed by adhering the last tab on the front cover to the back of the 1st panel with a glue stick.

The project can be presented as a book or as a circular form when opened to its fullest.

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project was launched in November 2020. To learn more, please visit www.ericareedlee.com/gratitude-circle.

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project is an open call for gratitude and connection in a time of great isolation and loss. Four participants collaborate to create an accordion booklet linked together by moments of gratitude.

To participate, write and/or draw 1-5 things you are grateful for in the accordion booklet on one panel. Then mail the accordion booklet and these instructions to a family member, friend, or acquaintance you are grateful for. The booklet (when flattened to a panel view) fits well in an A2 envelope.

When the fourth and final person has participated in this edition, he/she/they are welcome to either keep the project or forward it back to project facilitator and archivist Erica Lee (contact by ereedlee@gmail.com).

See reverse for more information regarding the circular accordion book structure.

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project

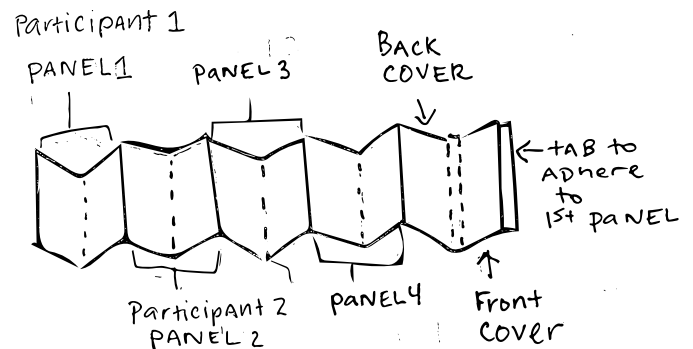

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project is an open call for gratitude and connection in a time of great isolation and loss. Four participants collaborate to create an accordion booklet linked together by moments of gratitude.

To participate, write and/or draw 1-5 things you are grateful for in the accordion booklet on one panel. Then mail the accordion booklet and these instructions to a family member, friend, or acquaintance you are grateful for. The booklet (when flattened to a panel view) fits well in an A2 envelope.

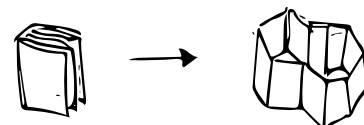

When the fourth and final person has participated in this edition, he/she/they are welcome to either keep the project or forward it back to project facilitator and archivist Erica Lee (contact by ereedlee@gmail.com).

See reverse for more information regarding the circular accordion book structure.

When the fourth panel is complete, the book is sealed by adhering the last tab on the front cover to the back of the 1st panel with a glue stick.

The project can be presented as a book or as a circular form when opened to its fullest.

The Gratitude Circle Mail Project was launched in November 2020. To learn more, please visit www.ericareedlee.com/gratitude-circle.